Chapter 1 by Emy R.

I sat down at my wood dining table as I gathered my stuff and put them in my black Leather bag. Tonight was the night. Tonight will probably be the night I would see most of the people in my school. Tonight was when I could official say that I am done with high school. It was a scary thought. I would move out. I would get an education. I would get someone to love.

The door bell rang. Stood up, dragging my bear feet on the hard wood floor as my midnight blue dress slightly swayed as I moved. I opened the door to reveal my date for the night. His blue eyes quickly switching from the ground to my almost black eyes. He was wearing at tux with a black tie. His light brown hair styled up in a quiff. "You ready to go?"

I glance down at the ground and mumbled yes . His eye,s sparkled with joy and he grab my hand . He was laughing as the car drove down the broken ally way . The car was dark black and my heart gave a leap of joy when we left the ally .

He asked if I wanted to go to the lake I said yes my words full of passion . Around the bumpy rounds I thought I should talk so I did it was great he was amazing .

I laughed so much I could not breath we stopped at the lake and shimmered as little speckles of light danced on the lake .

I felt as the world had sopped the breeze was no more than a lost tale and the tree had fell asleep. he walked over to me his clothes covered in water .

I asked how did this happen he replied with the grass is evil . Laughed and every time saw him my grin grew bigger
